

Critical Issues in Qualitative Health Research

Wednesday May 18, 20-21, 2016

This one-day Special Interest Group (SIG) session will be held on Wednesday, May 18th, at the 12th International Congress of Qualitative Inquiry, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, May 18, 20-21st, 2016 <http://icqi.org/>

The one-day seminar will focus on Critical issues in Qualitative Health Research.

We will address such topics as:

- Does the context of health (and illness) related research require or force the adaptation of qualitative methods?
- Is qualitatively-derived theory clinically useful?
- How do (and can) results of qualitative health research influence education, policy, and practice?
- Developing partnerships and teamwork in health related qualitative inquiry.
- Are practice-based evidence and qualitative health research a good fit?

Selected issue-based panels will be programmed on Friday, May 20 and Saturday, May 21.

Submit Abstracts to the ICQI: <http://icqi.org/submission>, marked GQHR SIG.

Register for the full conference. (Registration includes the GQHR session, but there is an additional fee for workshops on Thursday May 19th).
