

Exploring the meaning(s) of “ethical” practice in qualitative research

You are invited to participate in an interview-based study focused on how qualitative researchers define and engage in ethical research practices. Your participation is welcome if you meet the below criteria: (1) you are a post-graduate qualitative researcher who works at a university, research firm or institute, and/or is an independent scholar who actively designs and carries out qualitative research; and (2) you have led at least one independent qualitative research project and invited participants to participate in a research study by yourself.

If you are interested in participating in a 60-90 minute interview, please click on the following link and provide contact details: <https://forms.gle/iJKY9qbTwBoqQ4ad7>

Upon your completion of participation, you will receive a USD $25 gift card to thank you for your time.

For questions related to this study, please contact Pei-Jung Li at peijli@iu.edu.

We look forward to speaking with and learning from you.

Sincerely,
